CITY MATTERS.

The Board of City Improvements meets at the City Building to-day.
Another match will come off at the Cincinnati Trotting Park next Thursday.

The High Schools in this city were opened yesterday.
The Hamilton County Fair will be held on the 17th of next month.

There were at present fifty-eight prisoners working on the hill-side, up Deer-creek.
Real Estate Agents will hear in mind that this is the last week they will have to make their returns.

At a meeting of the County Commissioners, yesterday, orders were passed amounting to $810 55.
Several persons were yesterday discharged from the City Prison, or we might say stable, by order of the Prison Committee.

The Marion Gymnastic Association meet at No. 8 Engine-house to-morrow evening.
See advertisement of Kelsey & Co.'s Sewing-Machines. D. W. Harrington & Co. are agents for this section of the country.

John Campbell entered a plea of guilty in the Police Court, yesterday, to a charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He was fined ten dollars and the costs of prosecution.
Clerk Royce, of the Police Court, were are pleased to see, has recovered from his late illness. He granted the Police Court this morning with his good-looking "piz."

Next to the Opera-house, Wiswell's Picture Gallery was the Fourth-street attraction last night. It was crowded for several hours.
The abutments for the new Railroad Bridge over the mouth of Millcreek are nearly finished, and will be ready for the frame work next week.

The new bridge over the canal at Sixth-street is nearly completed, and teams are crossing on it. A new one is badly needed on Fourth-street.
Charles Wise, a very naive individual, stole a pocket book and finger ring from Frank Span, for which offense Charles will be tried by Judge Lowe to-morrow.

Madame Sullivan was before Judge Lowe, yesterday, charged with keeping a house of prostitution. The case was continued until next Saturday.
Joseph Obermeier, residing at the corner of Clark and Lynn-streets, was thrown from his horse while riding along Richmond-street, yesterday, and severely injured.

Mayor Bishop seems determined to have none but sober policemen on duty. He has suspended or dismissed no less than six, upon charges of drunkenness, within the past two weeks.
Longworth-street, between Stone and Hoadly, was graded about three months ago, and since that time fine brick dwellings have been erected on it. This is improvement, truly.

A temporary arrangement has been effected, on recommendation of the Trustees, by which those pupils studying German residing west of Mount-street, in the Eighth District, will be transferred to the Twelfth District.
A new lot of the Grover & Baker Sewing-Machines has just been received at their office, No. 58 West Fourth-street. Those in need of a good family sewing-machine cannot be suited better than with a Grover & Baker Machine.

Thieves are certainly becoming desperate. An attempt was made at the Police Court, yesterday, to pick a gentleman's pocket of a fine gold watch; fortunately for the owner, he had a stout chain, or he would have been minus a watch.
A hungry individual named John Huston, stole a wrench from a canal-boat and offered to trade it off for a dressed chicken. John was caught in the act and taken before Judge Lowe, yesterday, who gave him the benefit of sixty days in the County Jail.

Bro. Mule.—Geo. W. Frost will exhibit at Knightstown, Indiana, for three days, commencing to-morrow—the largest known male in the world. He will also be exhibited at the Dayton horse show, on the 6th of September, and at all the County Fairs in Indiana and Ohio.
Pupils, whose parents reside in the Eleventh District, south of Clark and west of Lincolns, will, hereafter, attend the school in the Twelfth District. This does not apply to those attending the "colony" of the Eleventh District, in the Intermediate School-house.

An application was made to the County Commissioners, yesterday, by Prosecutors Attorney Gains, urging them to send to Memphis, Tennessee, for Malloy, the notorious pickpocket. Malloy, it will be recollected, escaped from the Chain-gang, in this city, some weeks since. He is now confined in the Memphis Jail.
A billiard match occurred yesterday at the Buckeye Billiard Saloon, at which, as we are informed, one hundred dollars was bet and lost. The runs made were not noteworthy.

A suspicious individual named James Duff was locked up in the Ninth-street Station-house last evening.

Nathan Davis, a gentleman well known to the police, took possession of a horse and buggy, a few evenings since, which were standing in front of the Catherine-street Baptist Church, and drove off. He was followed by Officer C. J. Young, of the Fourteenth Ward, to the Southgate House, where he was arrested, and conveyed to the Ninth-street Station-house. He was before Judge Lowe, yesterday, and committed in default of $500 bail, to answer the charge next Thursday. The horse and buggy belonged to Doctor Marsh. On the way to the Watch-house Davis begged very hard to get off, but no go.

The report that Mr. S. Longley had recovered the goods stolen from his premises some few days since, turns out to be without foundation. Mr. L. informed us yesterday that only one article had been found—a lady's bracelet, with gold clasp. This article was picked up by a little boy, and not by the Police. The clasp upon the belt has every appearance of being brass, but we are assured by Mr. L. that it is of pure gold, worth twenty-five dollars. He is of opinion that the thief threw it away, thinking it of no account.

Sad Casualty.—MAN KILLED.—Yesterday morning, about half-past six o'clock, a tailor named Henry Davis, in the employ of Alex. Boyd, No. 33 East Third-street, while cleaning the show-window, fell backward to the floor, a distance of about three feet, and injured the skull and brain so seriously that he died about one o'clock in the afternoon. He has been employed as a cutter in Mr. Boyd's establishment for about six years. He was intoxicated at the time of the accident. He leaves no family.

Messrs. Rufus K. Payne, John S. Powers, and James Woodward, are a Special Committee to dispose of, if possible, with consent of the City Council, such school-houses and lots as may be inappropriate for present occupation. Such are the lot on Front and Parsons-street, near the Rolling-mill; the lot on Congress-street, near Pike-street; and the two Race-street school-houses, to be vacated when the Ruffin school-house may be completed.

The colony of school children of the Second District Public School, Sycamore-street, now being instructed in a room in Zimmerman's wine-depot, opposite, are to be removed to the parent school-house, and no longer exposed to danger of running across the street, at play hours. The third story is to be partitioned, and provision made for a class of large children, and the little ones will be kindly cared for, on the lower floor.

No little excitement was created last evening on the canal, between Vine and Race-streets, by the report that a man had been murdered, on a canal-boat, in that vicinity. We visited the "bloody ground," and found that a fight had ensued between a couple of boatmen, and that one struck the other on the nose, causing the claret to flow profusely. The belligerents were separated before further damage was done.

An ungallant individual named Patrick Divine, ran against a couple of ladies who were standing upon a sidewalk in the Thirteenth Ward, a few evenings since. Pat was before His Honor, Judge Lowe, yesterday, and fined $10 and costs. We hope in future he will have a better respect for the opposite sex.

About noon yesterday, while passing to the Newport Ferry-landing, we saw a colored gentleman, who had become very tired, and laid down to take a nap, his head down hill, at a place where the descent was about forty-five degrees. Comfortable position for a snooze—very.

The street-paving at the wharf, on Sunday, was deeply interesting and effective. Dr. Shephardson, Principal of Woodward High School, spoke at the meeting at the foot of Main-street. His heart was in his eloquent words, and every person present was an earnest listener.

Officer Barley and fireman McGibbons, at the late Columbia-street fire, had a dispute and a brawl. The Mayor, Chief Engineer of the fire department, and assistants, yesterday had both men before them. On full examination it was agreed that both were wrong, and both should be reprimanded and admonished.

Miss Anna Hefley has been appointed female assistant teacher in place of her sister, recently deceased, in the Eighth District School. Miss Laura Palmer was also appointed teacher in the same school. Also, Miss Kate Bryant, in the Fourteenth District.

The Clerk of the School Board, having issued the printed report of the Common Schools of this city, for the past year, has had leave of absence for three weeks. The Superintendent, Mr. I. J. Allen, officiates in his stead.

The person who yesterday threw a bowl of dirty water from the second story of the hotel, corner of Seventh and Western-rows, should bear in mind that sidewalks are made for persons to walk upon—not to be baptized.

A barn belonging to Harp Huston, on the Mount Pleasant Pike, about nine or ten miles from the city, was burnt on Sunday night last. Loss, from four to five thousand dollars. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Peter Brophy, an old thief, was arrested and confined in the Ninth-street Station-house last evening, charged with being one of the party who robbed the residence of Mr. Lewis, on George-street, some weeks since.

Mary Miller, an old habitue of the City Prison, was found walking around the Twelfth Ward with a bolt of calico last evening. She was confined in the Bremen-street Station-house, on suspicion of having stolen the same.

Mr. George Geocking has been appointed, temporarily, teacher of German in the second subdivision of the Fourth District School, Seventeenth Ward.

A billiard match occurred yesterday at the Buckeye Billiard Saloon, at which, as we are informed, one hundred dollars was bet and lost. The runs made were not noteworthy.

A suspicious individual named James Duff was locked up in the Ninth-street Station-house last evening.

AMUSEMENTS.
PIKE'S OPERA-HOUSE.—The fame of the magnificent Parodi in her great role of "Norma," drew a large assemblage at the Opera-house last night. To attempt to criticize a performance in which for years the critics of Europe and America have accorded to her the highest degree of excellence, would be traveling down over ground familiar to everybody. Suffice it to say that the grand melody of voices, the vast structure with its glorious depths, the same grand intensity and thorough identification with the part, which won the admiration of Europe in years gone by, thrilled her audience last night.

Signor Striglia, the handsome tenor, new to Cincinnati, possesses a voice of great power and sweetness, and in the rendition of the role of "Pollione," took the house by surprise, and won the most applause, as did several others of the company.

To-day's performance of the first five companies, Donizetti's magnificent opera of Lucia di Lammermoor, a composition abounding in innumerable gems, and introducing Senora Alamo as "Lucia," and the great baritone, Signor Giono, as "Ash-ton," Striglia, also appearing as "Edgardo." Here is an opera, and a cast, that should command the attendance of every lover of music in Cincinnati.

Connected with the Opera, the public will be delighted to learn that the beautiful native talent, who shortly previous, the beautiful opera of Rigoletto, for the purpose of introducing our talented countrywoman, Mrs. Charlotte Varian James in the principal role, supported by Parodi Striglia, Giono, and the full strength of the company. We predict for her a success equal to that which attended her concert.

PALACE GARDEN.—Was filled to overflowing last evening, by quite a fashionable audience. The new comedy of "The Black Swan" was received with shouts of applause.

WESTERN MUSEUM.—At this popular place of amusement, last evening, a large number were in attendance. Good singing, good dancing, &c.

NATIONAL THEATRE.—There was rather a slim attendance at this institution last evening.

COVINGTON NEWS.

POLICE COURT.—The following are the cases disposed of yesterday morning: Julius Longstreue, appearing that he acted on the defensive, John Plugh, a good-looking, jolly fellow, who got rather gloriously drunk, early last Sunday morning, was fined $20 for his fun. He did not lose temper when the sentence was announced, but alleged he "didn't know the law," as he had been in town but three months. Henry Steubner, arrested for stealing a hog, was discharged; the evidence went to show that, whether he was the legal owner of the hog or not, he obtained it in a third party in good faith. Schrickhouse, who was engaged in an established affair on the steamer "R. B. Hamilton," Sunday evening, demanded his trial, stating that he was ready to establish the fact that he acted on the defensive; but the prosecution not being ready for trial, his case was continued till this morning.

RUN-AWAY AND FIGHT.—Two individuals, named J. Rust and Thomas Herbert, respectively, got into a difficulty at the foot of Greenup-street, yesterday evening, about five o'clock, which brought on blows. While thus engaged a horse belonging to the former took fright, and ran off with the buggy in which he was hitched, and in which was a little girl about seven or eight years old. The horse ran up the street some distance, when it was stopped. No serious damage was done, either to the girl or the buggy. When the horse was brought back, the parties went down near the river bank, and commenced fighting again, and Rust, throwing a stone at his antagonist, broke his collar bone. A Deputy Marshal arrived on the ground at this juncture, and promptly arrested both parties.

A SUGGESTION.—We have received a communication from a citizen, suggesting a change in the arrangement of our fairs. At present, quarterly tickets are only good till "one hour after sundown." This, in winter, is about half-past five o'clock, manifestly too early for our citizens who do business in Cincinnati. The change suggested is, that a stated hour, say seven, or half-past seven, be fixed upon, regardless of season.

IMPROVEMENTS.—It would be useless to attempt to notice all the improvements going on in our city. Two-story brick residences are the great feature, however. These are scattered in every part of the city. Covington contains no less than a number not possessed by any other place in the vicinity. If we only had good water-works, our growth would be materially accelerated.

The reporter takes pleasure in acknowledging many favors extended him by the public officers of Covington, in aiding him to obtain the local occurrences of the day. Such attentions will always be appreciated.

Casey is entirely remodeling the front of his dry goods store, on Madison-street, near Sixth. It will add materially to the appearance of the building.

Mayor Foley is again in our midst, after an absence of some time, during which he has been enjoying the pure atmosphere of the lakes.

NEWPORT NEWS.

NEW BUILDING.—Messrs. Richard and Frank Hayman have added an ornament to Newport by the erection of their new brick store. In its construction, they have left no stone unturned, which would in any manner add to the existing arrangement of the different apartments. The length of the building is seventy-two and a half feet, twenty-four and a half feet wide, and three stories high. The first floor will be used as a dry-goods store. The second floor has been rented to the Newport Temple Honor. The third story will be used by the Newport Lodge of Masons. The cost of the building has been about $5,000. On Monday next the Haymans opened their store, with a new and well selected stock of goods.

Our Mayor informs us that there are frequent applications made to him by parents who are unable to support their children, to learn of place where they can have good homes, and he is raised to habits of temperance and industry. He says that these children are frequently intelligent, and with proper training, would become respectable members of society. Our worthy official appears deeply interested in these unfortunate, as every man must be. How many families there are that would be glad to adopt and educate them, if they knew where to find them.

POLICE COURT.—There were four cases before the Mayor this morning: Mary Ann Anderson, for disorderly conduct, was fined $1 and costs. Miranda Johns, a most abandoned wretch, was also arraigned for the same offense and fined $5 and costs. John Norton, whose arrest we noticed in our yesterday morning's issue, was fined $5 and costs. John M. Duff, charged with being drunk, was fined $5 and costs. As none of the prisoners had the means to liquidate their fines, they were all committed to Jail.

OUR SCHOOLS.—Our free schools commenced yesterday, and we are happy to state that the attendance is very large, numbering about nine hundred scholars—a good turnout for the first day. The gentlemanly principal, T. D. Edwards, took us into the different apartments, and introduced us to his assistants. We were charmed with the order everywhere established, and everything indicates that, with the present teachers, the scholars will rapidly advance in their studies.

The regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Covington and Newport Bridge Company was to have taken place yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, but as there was not a quorum present, the meeting could not organize.

A Hibernian, badly intoxicated, with a . . . and on each arm, started for Covington yesterday afternoon, but arriving at the bridge, he became a little muddled, and would "go." After exhibiting many of the propensities of the "father of all rabbits," for about fifteen minutes, his companions finally succeeded in getting him across the bridge.

INTERESTING.—To see an individual imbibed so much of the ardent as to claim the Court-house yard as his property, and insult strangers who are walking in it.
